Firing the Grid

To my spirit family;

What a lot of hoopla is circulating about the world-wide meditation on the 17th – Firing the Grid. Isn't it amazing how we provide ourselves with opportunities to step up to our mastery or to waltz backward into old paradigms of fear?

You can either approach this through duality --- or you can create from the absolute. If you choose duality, your light will attract an equal darkness that will have you shivering in fear.

If you create from the absolute, as we have been taught through the Twin Flame Womb processes – you cannot create opposites. There is not God and something other than God. There is not love and something other than love. If you choose to participate in this grand co-creation, step up to your mastery and create from the absolute.

*We CAN do this. We CAN co-create with and within God. We are not helpless children waiting for divine intervention. We are creating a new paradigm and we are doing it together. Uphold one another in this creative process and HOLD UP THE MIRROR OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPT FOR EVERY BIT OF LIFE THAT IS EVOLVING ON THIS PLANET.

I love you all. I love, honor and respect you for standing in the face of the illusion and stepping up to your mastery, even if you do it only nano-seconds at a time. Each nano-second counts. You inspire me.

God bless --- Angelina Heart
